

International Partnership
for Hydrogen and Fuel Cells
in the Economy

Hydrogen Energy Ministerial Meeting (“HEM”)

40th IPHE Steering Committee Meeting

4 – 5 October 2023

Washington DC, United States

Hydrogen Energy Ministerial Meeting

- 6th Hydrogen Energy Ministerial Meeting held on September 25, 2023 (in-person and on-line) in Tokyo, as a part of the Tokyo GX Week.
- Chair's Summary includes:
 - A firm global demand target of hydrogen at 150Mt, in which up to 90M being renewable and low-carbon hydrogen, by 2030
 - Positive impact on the creation of new industries (e.g. electrolyser supply chain) and new jobs closer to 800,000, mostly in skilled position
 - Importance of standards and certification
 - Financing (World Bank's first participation)

Ministerial Meeting Session

Hydrogen Energy Ministerial Meeting

- Total of 23 governments and international organizations participated.
- Nearly 600 people attended the sessions either in-person or on-line.
- Four workshops held on following themes:
 - Global Hydrogen Review 2023 Launch Event – keynote speech by IEA
 - Standard & Certification - panel discussion led by IPHE
 - Safety regulation, code and standard – panel discussion by Japanese, Korean and EU reps
 - Financing – panel discussion by World Bank, Lao, Germany, JBIC and Mitsui

IPHE Session

Safety Session

Financing Session

Thank you

International Partnership
for Hydrogen and Fuel Cells
in the Economy